Practice 4.2

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should justify and seek annual shareholders' approval. If the board continues to retain the independent director after the twelfth year, the board should seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

| | | |
|--|---|--|
| Application | : | Applied - Two Tier Voting |
| Explanation on application of the practice | : | At present, two (2) of the independent directors of the Company namely Mr Boo Chin Liong and Mr Chua Syer Cin have served the Board for more than twelve (12) years. The Board noted the recommendation in the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance that the tenure of an independent director should not exceed a cumulative term of nine (9) years. The Board is of the view that the independence of directors cannot be judged solely based on the tenure of service. Ultimately, the Independent Directors themselves are the best persons to determine whether they can continue to bring independent and objective judgment to board deliberations. In this regard, the Board has prescribed that all Independent Directors provide an annual confirmation of their independence to the Board based on the policy on criteria of assessing independence as prescribed by the Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad. To retain an Independent Director after the twelfth (12th) year, the Board will seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process at the Company's shareholders' meeting as follows: Tier 1: Only the large shareholder(s) of the Company votes; and Tier 2: Shareholders other than large shareholder(s) votes. |
